GOVERNOR A. O. STANLEY

who took the oath of office yesterday at Frankfort. With his undoubted ability and tireless energy he has the opportunity to make one of the greatest officials the grand old Commonwealth has ever had.

STANLEY IS INAUGURATED

Immense Crowd From All Sections of the State Throng the Streets of Frankfort.

Hon. A. O. Stanley, of Henderson, was sworn in as Governor of Kentucky yesterday. Chief Justice Shackelford Miller, of the Court of Appeals, administering the oath of office. At the same time Judge James D. Black, Lieutenant Governor, was also sworn in.

The city of Frankfort was in gala attire and the weather conditions were all that could be asked or expected. A large crowd was present for the ceremonies as well as to attend the reception and inaugural ball which was given at the State Capitol. Many Democratic clubs and organizations as well as the State Militia and University cadets took part in the mammoth parade.

TOBACCO MEN ORGANIZE

Warehousemen Meet at Courthouse Saturday Afternoon and Form Organization.

At a meeting of the stockholders and owners of the three loose leaf tobacco warehouses of this city held Saturday afternoon at the Court House, the Mt. Sterling Tobacco Association was formed. Mr. A. R. Robertson was elected President, Mr. A. S. Hart Vice-President and Mr. H. W. Lockridge, Secretary and Treasurer.

Various rules looking toward conducting the sales, soliciting tobacco, etc., were passed. Possibly the most interesting feature of the meeting to the farmers was the passing of a resolution fixing the selling fees at the warehouses at the same figures as charged last year. Another rule passed which will

STANLEY TAKES THE PLEDGE

Will Not Touch Intoxicating Liquors or Allow Any Served in Executive Mansion.

Governor-elect A. O. Stanley has made a public pledge that during his term of office as Chief Executive of Kentucky he will be a total abstainer from the use of alcoholic stimulants himself, and will bar all such liquors from the Governor's Mansion at Frankfort.

This announcement was made at the Warren Memorial Church in Louisville Sunday afternoon by Dr. Aquilla Webb, pastor. The occasion was the mass-meeting under the auspices of the International Peace Forum. About 600 men and women were present.

In opening the meeting, Dr. Webb announced that he had been authorized by Mr. Stanley to make an important announcement to the meeting. This announcement, the minister continued, would be one of interest to all the people of Kentucky.

"Mr. Stanley has authorized me to tell you, Dr. Webb said, "that while he is Governor of Kentucky not one drop of intoxicating liquor shall be admitted to the Executive Mansion, nor served at any dinner given by the Governor, and that he, himself, will be a total abstainer during his term of office."

The people of Kentucky, Dr. Webb said in concluding his announcement, have reason to congratulate themselves on the stand taken by the incoming executive.

The audience received the announcement with hearty applause.

greatly affect the rejections was "any warehouseman after starting a basket and getting a bid from a buyer and then raising the bid must pay for same as other buyers."

The first sale was to have been held Monday but owing to weather conditions it was decided to postpone the sale until Monday, December 13th. The sales will start at the Whitehall, then Robertson's and then the Farmers house will hold sales.

As we have said many times, we know of no good reason why every farmer in this section should not bring his tobacco to the Mt. Sterling market.

For Sale

Large black cow and few days old calf. For further information apply to Timon Boyd, Mt. Sterling, Ky., R. R. No. 3.

GOES TO FOREIGN FIELD

Mr. Lloyd S. Frazier, accomplished son of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. S. Frazer, of this city, will sail on December 28th, from New York City via London for Cape Town, South Africa, to assume a lucrative position as foreign representative of the Standard Oil Company.

DATE IS SET FOR WEDDING

Only Members of Immediate Family Will Be Present at Wedding

December 18th.

President Wilson and Mrs. Norman Galt will be married on Saturday, December 18th, at Mrs. Galt's home in Washington, according to a formal announcement made Saturday at the White House.

It was also announced that the only guests will be Mrs. Galt's mother, her brothers and sisters, the President's brother and sister, his daughters, and the members of his immediate household. No invitations will be issued.

No announcement was made regarding plans for a honeymoon, but it was expected that the President and his bride will leave Washington soon after the ceremony for somewhere in the South.

While no announcement was made of the hour of the ceremony, it was understood it will be late in the afternoon.

The Rev. Sylvester Beach, the President's pastor in Princeton, and the Rev. Herbert Scott Smith, rector of Mrs. Galt's church, are expected to officiate.

The formal announcement of the wedding plans was written out by the President himself. Both have agreed that all the details shall be as simple as possible.

Fire works of all kinds—Roman candles, Sparklers, Torpedoes and Fire Crackers.

INTERESTING LECTURE

Dr. W. R. Thompson delivered a most interesting lecture Sunday evening at the Christian church, on tuberculosis, the greatest plague of the human race.

Startling figures as to the death rate from this dreaded disease were given and the people urged to cooperate with the physicians and health officers in helping stamp out this great preventable disease.

Slaughter house and milk inspectors were recommended as two of the most essential officials any city or county could have.

The lecture was attended by a large crowd.

Mr. George A. Whitney Dies at the Home of His Daughter at Memphis, Tennessee.

Mr. George A. Whitney, former County Court Clerk of Montgomery county, and also former Mayor of the city of Mt. Sterling, died at the home of his daughter in Memphis, Tenn., Thursday.

Mr. Whitney spent many years as a resident of this city and was known and respected by a large number of people, especially the older residents. He was a big hearted, generous man who could not say no to a friend and although he was quite a wealthy man at middle age, during the last few years of his life his estate dwindled until he died a poor man.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Madge W. Dedman, of Birmingham, Ala., and Mrs. Annie W. McWilliams, of Memphis, Tenn. The remains were brought to this city for interment in Machpelah cemetery Friday.

ARE PLEASED WITH PIKE

Citizens of District in Which Pike
Is Constructed are Well Satisfied.

We are in receipt of the following letter regarding the new turnpike which is nearing completion near Jeffersonville, this county. This pike was constructed by the county with state aid and as to how well the people in the section are pleased, the letter will show: "Our pike at this place is nearing completion and will be turned over in a few days to the public as an absolute gift to this district from the county and state, and it is a dandy, if you please.

"We have observed every rod of this road in building and have never been able to detect any effort on the part of either of the two able gentlemen who have had it under construction, to slight or carelessly lay one foot of road. Each of them seems as much interested as though the pike had been laid in front of their own property. For such noble services we, the patriotic citizens of this district, extend to them our sincere thanks and highest and best regards, hoping that they may continue in the good work which they have chosen and are so able and capable to perform, and which will be a lasting monument to their memory many years after they have crossed the River of Time to the Great Beyond. Now we also want to thank our able and efficient County Attorney, Mr. E. W. Senff, and Judge W. O. Chenaud for their untiring efforts and the kind and careful consideration which they have given this matter, also our Fiscal Court. Every one of you who voted for this pike we feel we owe you a debt of gratitude which we can never pay, and we are not mad at those who voted against it; we hope that they now feel and realize that we needed it and are entitled to it. We are poor indeed, but there is a cause. We are proud of our large tax-payers of this county, and really don't want to saddle any unnecessary tax on them for our benefit, but we feel that this will be a help to them, as most of them are farmers and stock raisers and the most of the cattle and other stock that supply Mt. Sterling come over this pike.

"We invite you to come out to Jeffersonville in your nice automobile and meet the droves and pick out the nicest and the first of the flocks as they stand in the fields, from here to above the Slate bridge, and if you haven't an auto just get in that little Ford and come. You if we are only eating the plums that some one else has gathered, then there is no great honor in it for us. Any one can receive, but it takes them that have to give. We are not angry at our more fortunate brothers who have outstripped us in this race for money and fame, but we are proud of you; we call you our big brothers when a rival or enemy appears no the field.

We wish you were double what you are; we do not covet that which you have, but we grant you the point and are willing to stand behind and help push you farther on, and we will follow the best we can. We are proud of Montgomery county and the State of Kentucky. We were as proud when Jack Barrymore won the blue at the Panama-Pacific Exposition as we could be. We are always glad to see Kentucky in everything that is of any importance anywhere. But that is not all. We are proudest of the nice, new and well-constructed turnpike which has just been laid in front of our homes. We extend to every officer and private citizen who in any way aided or assisted in securing the same, our sincere thanks again and again, and we will always feel grateful to you for your support, and last but not least, to our good neighbors and very much respected citizen, Mr. A. M. Bedford, who very cheerfully, and free of charge to any one, furnished four-fifths of the rock to build the entire new pike.

"I will take the liberty to speak for every true citizen in this district, that we recognize in you, and you have made manifest, that true and public-spirited gentleman which we have always taken you to be. We feel that our community is honored and bettered by such as you and may a smiling Providence amply reward you for this kind act unmarred by any selfish interest.

"Now in conclusion, will say that we are for the good roads movement that is interesting the people of Kentucky. We would be glad if it were possible to see every public road in the state a nice turnpike. We can hear our fellow-men who live further up the state road whisper that we hope this nice road will be continued to the Menee line next year. However, we don't want to dictate what our very clever county officers shall do in the future. We are certain they will do the right thing, though the pike tastes so sweet and good, how we would like another slice! Wishing the good people of the entire state a Merry Christmas and a Happy and prosperous New Year, we are Very respectfully yours,

C. M. Brown and others.

Fine Farm For Rent

As executors of J. E. Henry, we will publicly rent for the year commencing March 1, 1916, the farm owned by him at Aaron's Run, in Montgomery county, containing about 292 acres of land. Renting will take place at the Court House door in Mt. Sterling, Ky., on Monday, December 20, 1915

at 1 o'clock p. m., to the highest and best bidder.

The farm is well watered and has on it a good dwelling house, 2 good tenant houses, cribs, stables and necessary outbuildings, also 2 tobacco barns, large enough to house 12 acres of tobacco. Farm to be cultivated as follows: 66 acres to be plowed, of which 12 acres can be put in tobacco, the balance of plowed land can be put in corn or oats. About 60 acres are sown in rye and the remainder of the farm is in grass, meadow, etc.

TERMS OF RENTING:—Note with good security due March 1, 1917. Privilege reserved to seed place in the fall of 1916. Possession given March 1, 1916. Prospective renters will be shown over farm by James B. Clark or tenants on the place.

ANOTHER FOOL STUNT

Henry Ford's business acumen has made him a national figure, has given him a name to be envied in commercial circles in this country. And just as he is reaching the zenith of his career a fool stunt is likely to transform him into an object of ridicule throughout the world.

Mr. Ford's much advertised peace party mission to Europe is with the avowed intention of sending wireless messages to the soldiers in the trenches, demanding that they lay down their arms and go home on a strike against their officers—in other words, to desert the flags they follow.

If it were not that such a demand would likely involve this country in trouble with some foreign government, the whole proceeding would be so ridiculous as to be funny.

The "mission" was foredoomed to be a farce and a fizzle from the beginning, and for the sanest and simplest reasons in the world.

It would be impossible for Ford or any other man to send a wireless message to the troops in the trenches, for the simple reason that there are no wireless stations in the trenches to receive such a message.

No commander of troops would permit such a message to reach his men if a dozen stations were available.

The men who are fighting the causes of their respective countries are not the traitors or fools Mr. Ford takes them to be. They believe in the cause for which they are contending, and the wild vapors of a bunch of notoriety seeking Americans will elicit from them nothing but the utmost contempt.

Mr. Ford may be a big frog in Detroit, but he will find from sad experience that he is a mighty little tadpole in the European puddle.

The wisest thing he can do is to go back to Detroit, and stay there, and forget himself.

The sycophantic small fry who are trailing along in the shadow of his millions do not count at all.

If Andy Carnegie is pining to get rid of that remaining $60,000,000 in order to die poor all he has to do is trot right along to this little burg. We'll receive him with open pockets, and narray a chirp about tainted money.

ON THE ROAD TO PLENTY

Prosperity has been slow in returning, but it is hitting the high places at last.

From all parts of the country come reports of renewed activity. Factories are resuming operations on full running time; industries that have lain dormant for years are springing into existence again; labor is in demand everywhere, and gold is pouring into this country from abroad in an endless stream.

It is the history of this country that following a period of depression comes a long period of prosperity, and all reports indicate that the prosperity of 1916 will be the greatest we have yet known.

We are authorized to announce

JUDGE JOHN W. RILEY, OF ROWAN COUNTY

as a Democratic candidate for Congress in this, the Ninth Congressional District, at the August primary, 1916.

STATE AID WORK

Montgomery county received its first state aid work this year and we are glad to say it is first class in every particular; in fact, so far as re-construction work is concerned, it is too good for our financial condition. On the Jeffersonville road, where some new pike work was done, our judgment is it could not have been done cheaper, but on the Owingsville road we doubt the advisability of spending over $2,000.00 a mile for re-construction work. The work is alright, but it is spending too much money, mileage of road considered, in view of the total amount raised for turnpike purposes, as we see it. To illustrate: say we should next year ask for the maximum amount allowed one county—$12,000.00—which, to get, we must put up a like sum. The $24,000.00 thus raised, if spent at the rate of $2,000.00 a mile, would re-construct only twelve miles of road. We have approximately $15,000.00 for turnpike purposes and would therefore have only $3,000.00 left with which to keep in repair over a hundred miles of turnpike and nearly double that amount of dirt roads. The specifications are too drastic in poor counties. They are doubtless alright for Jeffersonville, or Fayette, but they do not suit our purpose. Our judgment is that the State Highway Department ought to permit counties like Montgomery to drain and grade up roads with state aid, adding the amount of new mettle absolutely necessary, as the county did on the Winchester pike this year, at a cost of four or five hundred dollars a mile. As it now is, on state aid work the county's part amounts to more than double that sum. It is true, we would not have any speed ways, but we would have greatly improved roads and ones that would answer every reasonable need.

Specifications that suit Jeffersonville are too expensive for Montgomery and we hope the Department will realize this fact next year and prepare a graduated set of specifications based upon ability to pay and local needs.

Gov. Stanley, here's hoping your administration may satisfy those who voted for you and surprise those who did not. It's up to you.

INSURANCE MEN MEET

Mark T. McKee, National Secretary of the Insurance Federation of the United States, was in our city one day last week and while here organized the Montgomery County branch of the Insurance Federation of Kentucky.

The officers of the local branch of the Federation are as follows: Member Advisory Council of Kentucky from Montgomery county, George E. Coleman; County Chairman, W. H. Strossman, Jr.; Secretary, H. G. Hoffman; Member representing Fire Insurance, A. Hoffman; Life Insurance, R. L. Coleman; Accident Insurance, T. F. Rogers, Jr.; Surety, Ben R. Turner; Policyholders, I. F. Tabb.

The objects of the Federation are to conserve and promote the mutual interests of the agent, the policyholder, and the insurer; to effect concerted action on all matters of mutual interest; and to bind in closer harmony all persons engaged in the business of insurance, in all lines.

The members of this organization hope that this movement will result in a better understanding between insured and insurer and believe that such an understanding can be brought about only through a get-together movement.

When Dreams Come True

A splendid audience was present Monday night at The Tabb Theatre for the musical comedy "When Dreams Come True." The scenery was excellent, the costumes extremely beautiful, the chorus girls captivating and the show clean and entertaining throughout. Musical comedies are always popular here and we trust the management of the Tabb Theatre will be able to book several more for this season.

FARM CHANGES HANDS

One of the most conservative and accurate American economists has shown by careful figures that American farmers lose nearly ten hundred million dollars each year because they cannot get what they have to sell within reach of the purchaser."—Albert J. Beveridge.

MAYSVILLE TO BE DRY

The Mason county local option case which has been pending before the Supreme Court of the United States for several months was on Monday dismissed as the Court held it had no jurisdiction. As this was the last hope for the "wets" Maysville will become "dry" in a few weeks.

The Raven

Everyone is familiar with Edgar Allan Poe's famous poem, The Raven. A picturization of this beautiful poem will be the attraction at The Tabb Theatre tonight, (Wednesday). It is a V. L. S. E. attraction which is sufficient guarantee of the excellence of the production.

To Members of the Bible School of the Christian Church.

There will be only three more Sundays in this year. The teachers and officers of the Bible School of the Christian Church earnestly request that all members of the school help make these three Sundays three of the very best during the year. To do this every member must help. Come every Sunday. Come on time. Bring somebody with you. The Christmas service will be held on Sunday the 19th, and we are trying to make it the best Christmas service we have ever had. Tell your friends. Remember that this is your school and if it is to continue to succeed it must have your support and influence.

BITTEN BY DOG

Mr. Walter V. Turner has been quite sick for the past week, caused from a dog bite on the finger which he received while on a hunt in Carter county a few weeks ago. Mr. Turner was feeding his dogs, when one of them grabbed a piece of bread he had in his hand, barely scratching his finger. He paid no attention to it, and last week he had high fever and called a doctor who had difficulty in locating the trouble. Finally Mr. Turner told him of the bite. Blood poisoning was narrowly averted, but Mr. Turner is getting along nicely and will be out in a few days.

INTO A STRANGE COUNTRY

Traveler in Other Lands Must Be Prepared With Open Mind to Absorb Impressions.

In the Woman's Home Companion Laura Spencer Portor continues her series of interpretations of various countries. Concerning a nation's personality, Miss Portor says in part:

"He who would travel in other lands must leave his own behind. He who would judge of a country and a people must leave his own fireside opinions, turn the key on his own prejudices, cross whatever seas of difficulty may lie between his and another's land, and with eager step, whether upon roads good or difficult, whether upon hidden by-paths or highways known to all, he must travel into the very heart of the stranger country. Thus he may come any day upon that country's great cities in the dawn, or chance upon her noble events spread solemn beneath the stars; so shall he come to know and love her simple village life and humble pleasures, her fertile plains or rugged mountains, her attainments and her difficulties. So, living among this people and sharing the intimate life of their homes, they shall come to have for him a particular meaning, shall stand to him for certain things not elsewhere to be found in this exact kind of measure. So shall an entire nation reveal to him a distinct personality, even as an individual with whom we have lived intimately and understandingly becomes to us dear through the unfolding of that individuality and those characteristics so wholly his own, the like of which we shall not look upon elsewhere or again."

IS CREDITED TO CHURCHMAN

Lines That Have Been Highly Praised Declared to Have Been Produced in Time of Peace.

Robert Service, the Canadian writer, who is at present engaged in Red Cross work in France, has sent to the Paris correspondent of an English paper what he describes as "the best war poem I have seen." The verses, which, Mr. Service says, were found by a French priest on the body of an English soldier killed at the Marne, run as follows:

They say that war is hell, the great accurst;

The sin impossible to be forgiven; Yet I can look upon it at its worst, And still see blue in heaven. For when I note how nobly natures form

Under the war's red rain, I deem it true

That he who made the earthquake and the storm

Perchance made battles, too.

As a matter of fact, the lines were written in a time of profound peace, like most good war poems, and by a man who was an ecclesiastic, not a soldier. Their author was Doctor Alexander, the late lord primate of Ireland, and they were first published in the Times some seven or eight years ago.—Manchester Guardian.

INTERESTING LETTER

We were in receipt of a most interesting letter last week from Mr. R. G. Salyer, formerly of this county, but who has been living at Cassville, Mo., for some time. Mr. Salyer is over seventy years of age but still takes much interest in business affairs and writes that things in his section are in fine shape. We quote the following from his letter: "Times were never better than they are today in Missouri; stock and grain high, all Democrats happy. Wishing you a happy future in your work for the good of the people, I am,

Yours truly,

R. G. Salyer."

NOW HER FRIENDS HARDLY KNOW HER

But This Does Not Bother Mrs. Burton, Under the Circumstances.

Houston, Texas.—In an interesting letter from this city, Mrs. S. C. Burton writes as follows: "I think it is my duty to tell you what your medicine, Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done for me.

I was down sick with womanly trouble, and my mother advised several different treatments, but they didn't seem to do me any good. I lingered along for three or four months, and for three weeks, I was in bed, so sick I couldn't bear to go one to walk across the floor.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, a woman's tonic. I have taken two bottles of Cardui, am feeling fine, gained 5 pounds and do all of my housework.

Friends hardly know me, I am so well."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, don't allow the trouble to become chronic. Begin taking Cardui to-day. It is purely vegetable, its ingredients acting in a gentle, natural way on the weakened womanly constitution.

You run no risk in trying Cardui. It has been helping weak women back to health and strength for more than 50 years. It will help you. At all dealers.

DEFECTIVES AT HOME

While the country in general is considering "what to do with our defectives," it might be well for each community to look into the matter of defectives at home.

Every community has its own defectives. They flourish in all walks of life. If they are not defective in one thing they are in another, and a tolerant and passive spirit on the part of the public only encourages them in their offensive acts.

In most country towns and small cities perhaps the greatest and most destructive offender is the "character assassin."

With such people no woman or girl, regardless of her purity, is immune. When these character assassins get together they pick the women to pieces bit by bit, analyze their "good points" as they would those of a horse, and revel in the imaginations of a warped brain degrade and besmirched with lust.

Nine-tenths of the stories we hear of various women spring from just such sources—stories without a grain of foundation, conceived in a mind of evil and spread by the tongue of infamy.

Let us look to the defectives at home. They may be few in number, but they are a menace wherever they exist and should be curbed with a hand of iron.

AFTER THREE YEARS

Mount Sterling Testimony Remains Unshaken.

Time is the best test of truth. Here is a Mount Sterling story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

John Forman, 8 Montgomery St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I have been a hard worker all my life. When I had lifting or heavy work to do, I went about it and did it and in that way wrenched my back. I was laid up for several days and began looking around for a cure. I did not find anything that would help me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Duerson's Drug Store. They soon made me feel well and strong and free from kidney trouble."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER, Mr. Forman said: "I am glad to confirm what I said about Doan's Kidney Pills before; they did more for me than any kidney medicine I ever used."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Forman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (22-31)

CLIPPINGS FROM THE SNAGTOWN TORCHLIGHT

In order to correct an erroneous impression, we desire to state that while the editor of the Torchlight, Colonel John Plunkett, who is us, and justice of the peace of Snagtown township, who is us, was examining Colonel Harry Myers, editor of the Coon Holler Index, said Myers attempted to lower the dignity of the court by addressing Colonel Plunkett as "Jack." We warned him that he must say "Your Honor," and threatened to fine him for contempt. The aforesaid Myers replied: "I'll be darned if you do. You and me were boys together, Jack, and because you're so high is no reason you should fall so hard on me." In order to preserve the dignity of the court, we were compelled to fine him. In next week's issue of the Index we expect to be cleaned up and spit out, but the dignity of the court must be upheld.

One of the sure signs of a hard winter is the fact that Mose Alexander has ordered a pair of new pants with deep pockets.

During a game of seven-up on a stump over near the Big Ford church Monday morning, Dr. R. T. Cook swapped a curly comb and a jug of moonlight reel to Bently Thomas for a calf and a lantern. Next Sunday the doctor aims to surprise the Possum Hill preacher by presenting him with the calf when the hat is passed around.

The Postmaster has installed a big long wood stove at the post office to enable the mail carrier to warm his feet.

Linwood Roberts has added two more strings to his fiddle and can now make either coarse or fine music.

Leonard Boulton got caught out in the frost the other night and sought shelter under a persimmon tree, where he observed the unusual sight of seeing the persimmons ripe.

Jack Dashner complains about the persimmon crop this year as usual. He says now the trees are too tall, as the persimmons have not yet fallen to the ground. The only remedy he can suggest is to saw off the top limbs.

CORRESPONDENCE

Levee

Mr. Rob Baber is still improving. Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Hainline, of Mt. Sterling, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Bowen.

Messrs. Harve Knox, James Anderson and V. R. Faulkner went to Powell county hunting this week.

Judge Knox, of Powell county, was here Saturday on business.

Mr. Bogie Barnett, of "Swampers Rest," was in this place Sunday.

Mrs. Sherman See when returning from the barn fell over a sled spraining her ankle.

Mr. Roger Baber is quite ill at his home, "Fairmont Heights," with "honeriness."

Mrs. Mary Jane Martin, of Willoughbytown, spent Sunday with Mr. B. C. Willoughby.

It doesn't seem natural to loaf without Perry Baker and Charlie Barnett. But since they are in love we excuse them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. French will soon move into their new home just completed.

Among those from here who attended the oyster supper at "Gum Grove" were Buck Witt, Crump Monroe, Banty Knox and Dempsey Tice Barnett.

Bro. Wilson, of the Baptist church at Mt. Sterling, was with us at Sunday School.

Mrs. Siby Thomson has been quite ill but is better at the time of this writing.

A good many crops are being raised now—the weather is cold and the stoves are hot.

Howard's Mill.

(By Mrs. W. W. Stevenson.)

Farmers here are about through cribing their corn and are now taking advantage of the good weather and are killing their hogs.

Mrs. Mary Tapp, the mother of Wayne and Millard Tapp, departed this life last Wednesday after a long illness. We extend our deepest sympathy to those of her loved ones who will greatly miss her.

Mrs. Lizzie Gillispy, of Lexington, who has been visiting her brother, Charley Buchman, for the past week, returned home Saturday.

Several from here attended services at Flate creek, conducted by Elder McClure, Sunday. The meeting closed Sunday night with several additions.

W. W. Stevenson sold a milk cow to Press Belcher for $65, also two meat hogs to James Kelso for 6 cents per pound, and two loads of corn for $2.75 a barrel.

Mason Kash, son of L. M. Kash, went to Indiana last week, where he got a good position at 22 cents an hour.

Earl Markland sold a nice pair of mules for $380.

Good Minstrel

Neil O'Brien and his crowd of funmakers was the attraction at The Tab Saturday night and a nice audience enjoyed the show. Eddie Ross and his "African harp" proved the hit of the evening, while O'Brien, Mazier, Detzel and White were fine. The scenic effects were extra good and taken as a whole it was one of the best minstrels ever shown in Mt. Sterling.

AT WORK AGAIN

The many friends of Miss Ola Rogers, who has been confined to her home with sickness for the past four months, will be pleased to know that she is able to be out and is again at her dressmaking rooms over Cooper's pool room. Miss Rogers is one of our very best young ladies and deserves the patronage of the public.

Opal is Deadly Omen.

The superstition has come down the ages that to find an opal is a deadly omen. It means that you have picked up someone else's misfortune. "Better let the stone lie, no matter what its value may be," is an old adage.

The Remnant.

This world is full of people whose whole happiness and inner salvation depend on their doctrine and practice of the remnant. We have referred already to the decay and obscurity of later life. But the position is equally true of multitudes in their prime. With them also the fragment is all that seems left. They have lost the thing which made life desirable. Their fortune has gone, or their friend, or their health. Passion has wrought disillusion. The man or woman of whom they had staked their affections is not what they thought. The cup which brimmed and sparkled has turned into a draught of bitterness. Is this, then, life's defeat? Not unless we so choose. There is no loss of fortune, no wreck of personal affection, no disaster in the sphere of the visible but can be turned by the soul's inner energy into some higher phase of the living.—J. Brierley.

Definition of a Drop.

In the British Pharmacopoeia "drop" is defined as coming from a tube of which the external diameter is exactly three millimeters, 20 such drops of water at 15 degrees Centigrade being equivalent to one milliliter or cubic centimeter.

Valuable Timber Tree.

One of the largest and most valuable timber trees of the country is the tulip tree, known to lumbermen as yellow poplar. It is related to magnolias, but is the only tree of kind in the world.

Useless Hope.

"Well, did you get quantum suit at the Smiths' luncheon?" "Certainly not. This town is local option."

Mother Love.

When the first baby comes most fathers regard it as a little, red, wriggling lump of humanity, but in the mother's eyes it is the most wonderful being that ever came into the world and she wonders why God was good enough to give it to her.

Son's Origin of Right.

My voice may sound too harsh, and I may too severely insist on proclaiming the necessity of virtue and sacrifice; but I know, and you will soon know also, that the sole origin of every right is a duty fulfilled.—Mazin.

More in Silence.

A man who lives right, and is right, has more in his silence than another by his words.—Phillips Brooks.
